

ART ACTION

Third Thursday Community Writing Workshops

Join HOTLIPS Pizza and Write Around Portland every third Thursday morning this summer to experience the transformative power of writing in community. These workshops are perfect for the new writer and the seasoned writer. Start your day with breakfast pastries, coffee, tea and the written word.

Workshop Themes

- Thursday, May 15: Honoring Mother's Day: Mothers, Grandmothers, Where We Come From
- Thursday, June 19: Summer Solstice: The Return of Light
- Thursday, July 17: Post Independence Day Reflections: "I never knew writing could set me free"
- Thursday, August 21: The Long Hot Days of Summer: Short Writes to the Muse

Location, Time & Cost

HOTLIPS Pizza, 2211 SE Hawthorne, 9:00am—11:00am

Pre-registration is encouraged. To register, email; hotlipspizza@writearound.org with your name, phone number and the date of the workshop(s) you would like to attend.

$25.00 Suggested donation to Write Around Portland per individual workshop.

All proceeds go directly toward funding Write Around Portland workshops and programs for people affected by HIV/AIDS, veterans living with PTSD, survivors of domestic violence, people living with mental illness, homeless youth and many others. For more information, go to www.writearound.org.

HOTLIPS Art Action

These workshops are a part of HOTLIPS Art Action, a series of events and artworks that express the working philosophy that sensory experiences enhance life, and that art, like pizza, is an irreducible ingredient for a healthy society. HOTLIPS Pizza is a local family-owned company with 4 restaurants in Portland, a central processing facility and a soda production operation. Perennially ranked among the best Portland restaurants for great food and its use of locally sourced and organic ingredients. Founded in 1984, HOTLIPS continues to be recognized locally and nationally as a leader in sustainability. www.hotlipspizza.com