

Prompt:

A Write Around Portland Community Workshop

Join us for a weekly hands-on workshop devoted to generative writing and the transformative power of writing in community.

Based on the acclaimed Write Around Portland model, this dynamic workshop incorporates many of our favorite writing exercises designed to inspire the writing life, including freewriting; work with writing elements; strength-building feedback and early-draft revision. The workshop will cap off with a community reading.

Prompt: A Write Around Portland Community Workshop

Meets Tuesdays for 10 weeks: April 8 - June 10, 2008

7:00 - 9:00pm

Powell's City of Books, 1005 W. Burnside

$285 (includes free parking, snacks and access to the "bowels of Powells")

Prompt facilitator Natalie Serber holds an MFA from Warren Wilson College. Natalie has been short-listed for Best American Stories, and is the recipient of the Tobias Wolff Award for Fiction and the John Steinbeck Award for Fiction. She is a seasoned Write Around Portland workshop facilitator and board member, and also teaches through Literary Arts' Writers in the Schools and Community of Writers.

All proceeds from Prompt go directly toward funding Write Around Portland workshops and programs for people affected by HIV/AIDS, veterans living with PTSD, people with mental illness, seniors living on a low income, teen parents and many others.

Pre-registration is required. For more information about Prompt and to register, go to www.writearound.org or call 503.796.9224.