

PUMPKIN POETRY

A Fundraiser for WRITE AROUND PORTLAND

Saturday, October 1, 2011

6:30 - 8:00pm

People's Coop Community Room (upstairs).
3029 SE 21st Ave.

Scratching words into pumpkins while they are still green on the vine reveals poems etched into their skin at harvest time. Come read these creations, enjoy appetizers and spiced cider, and bid at the silent auction on your favorite pumpkin poem to take home.

All proceeds from the silent auction & pass the hat will go to Write Around Portland. Through a unique model of writing workshops, published anthologies and public readings, Write Around Portland helps people transform their lives and our community.

Pumpkin Poetry is hosted by Shelley Gillespie, Write Around Portland volunteer, with pumpkins donated by Simington Gardens.
