XY&Z is a celebration of writing and Write Around Portland.

All of the proceeds support Write Around Portland's unique model of writing workshops coupled with published anthologies and community readings.

Write Around Portland's programs are offered at no-charge to people living with AIDS, veterans living with PTSD, survivors of domestic violence, adults and youth in recovery from alcohol and drug addictions, low-income seniors, people in prison, teen parents and others who may not have access to writing in community because of income, isolation or other barriers.
