

For 20 years, Write Around Portland has created a community of writing that's open and accessible to everyone—a place where people of all ages, backgrounds and income levels come together, learn from one another and bond over what makes us uniquely human.

Be a part of Write Around Portland's 20th Year

Community Readings in May and December

We are celebrating 20 years of writers! We'll have cake, an anthology retrospective to share and new pieces from our 2019 workshop participants. Join us for an upcoming reading and hear the powerful stories of our writers. Dates and locations coming soon on writearound.org.

Volunteer Celebration July 25

Volunteers past and present, we want to celebrate you! Since Write Around Portland's founding in 1999, dedicated volunteers have made our workshops, readings and books possible. Let's celebrate what we've accomplished together. Contact our office to RSVP: (503) 796-9224

Thursday, July 25, 6 to 8pm at Lagunitas Community Room, 237 NE Broadway, Ste. 300

Raise Your Pen October 11

Join us at Raise Your Pen, Write Around Portland's annual party with a purpose. With a goal to raise $89,500, this special 20th anniversary edition is not to be missed.

Friday, October 11, 6pm at Vitalidad Movement Arts & Event Center, 116 SE Yamhill St.

Community Writing Workshops at HOTLIPS Pizza Year-Round

Our writing workshops at HOTLIPS Pizza are perfect for both new and seasoned writers. Start your day with the written word. Attend one, attend them all! Workshops are held 3rd Thursdays and most last Sundays from 9-11am at HOTLIPS Pizza on Hawthorne (2211 SE Hawthorne Blvd). Sliding scale fee $10-$30.