Join us at Raise Your Pen for an inspiring evening honoring everyone's unique story and supporting the power of writing, storytelling, and listening. Drawing over 100 writers, readers, thinkers, and high-wealth donors in Portland, this event is a great way to increase brand awareness and drive sales.

The event consists of dinner, beer and wine, silent auction, games, and inspiring readings from our writers!

Summer Reading & Book Release

Early June

Winter Reading & BOOK RELEASE

Early December

Audience

- Our writers, donors, and volunteers
- Family and friends of writers
- Nonprofit agency partner staff

Our Reading & Book Release events celebrate the hard work of our inspiring writers. Every writer is invited to publish one piece in a professionally-printed anthology that is distributed to local bookstores across the Portland Metro area.

Writers are invited to share their piece aloud at our Reading & Book Release events. These events are free and open to the public.

About Write Around Portland: We change lives through the power of writing by facilitating storytelling in underheard communities.

We bring people together to write, heal, and transform, fostering well-being through respectful, shared creative writing experiences. Our priority populations include people who are unhoused, incarcerated, low-income, and/or who are experiencing addiction, mental illness, or physical illness, or have a disability.

Partner with Confidence: Write Around Portland is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that was founded in 1999. Our professional staff have years of nonprofit experience, and we follow all nonprofit financial best practices, including contracting with a third-party accounting firm.
